

Emil Haury Lecture Series

October 6, 13,
20 & 27
7 PM–8:30 PM
University of Arizona

Center for English as a Second Language, Room 103

Thursday, October 6
Senior Scholar

George J. Gumerman
*Recreating the Past:
Understanding the Anasazi
Using Computer Simulation*

Thursday, October 13
Distinguished Professor of Anthropology
Patricia L. Crown

Old Sites, New Insights: Returning to Snaketown and Pueblo Bonito

Thursday, October 20
Preservation Archaeologist
Katherine A. Dungan
Mogollon Great Kivas Revisited: Continuity and Diversity in Religious Architecture in the Central Southwest after 1000 CE

Thursday, October 27
Doctoral Candidate
Benjamin A. Bellorado
Taking Haury's Monumental Legacy to New Places: Tree Rings, Murals, and Textiles in the Southern Bears Ears

For more information visit wnpa.org or call 520-622-6014.

Western National Parks
Association

Photo courtesy Arizona State Museum

Western National Parks Association and the Arizona State Museum, invite you to a lecture series, funded in part by the Southwestern Foundation, recognizing the legacy of Emil W. Haury. An iconic figure, Dr. Haury had a profound influence on the field of southwestern archaeology. Learn how he continues to inspire the next generation and how new technology is being used to expand on his work.

